

CLOSING EXERCISES AT MISS MORRIS'S SCHOOL

Honors and Diplomas Awarded to Well-Known Richmond
Girls.

MUSICAL PROGRAM RENDERED

Calliopean Literary Society Gives Luncheon at Jefferson Hotel—Address by Dr. Anderson, of Richmond College—Medals Awarded.

The closing exercises of Miss Morris's School for Girls took place in the school auditorium on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon. The lower school held its commencement exercises on Wednesday afternoon, beginning with a violin solo by Miss Virginia Shepherd. This was followed by "The Watch on the Rhine," sung by the school and accompanied by Miss Margaret Barker on the violin. A recitation given by six little girls came after two musical numbers—"Deutschland, Deutschland Ube Alles," by the whole school, and "Stille Macht," accompanied by Miss Delta Moore on the violin. Then all the little girls sang "Way Down Upon the Sewanee River," after which the honors and certificates were served.

The commencement exercises for the upper school began on Wednesday with a luncheon at the Jefferson given by the Calliopean Literary Society. On Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock Dr.
Anderson, of the Richmond Medical College faculty, delivered the commencement address in the school auditorium, and presented the prizes given by the alumnae association for the best short story and best poem written in the upper school. Miss Mary McDaniel won the prize for the best story, and Miss Louise Michaels for the poem. Reading selections were given by Miss Ida Massie from "Elizabeth," and Miss Sue Brown Briggs and Jean Blair from "The Courtship of Miles Standish."

The awarding of diplomas to the graduates and other certificates of honors ended the program, after which refreshments were served.
